Community Smith

Head to the rooftop of this new barbecue joint to experience The Garden, an impeccably designed outdoor space where guests can sip, eat and socialize while taking in the killer skyline. Midtown, @community_smith

Last Word

This Old Fourth Ward gem boasts Mediterranean small plates and inventive craft cocktails galore, both of which can be enjoyed from the cozy exterior seating area with a scenic Beltline view to boot. Old Fourth Ward, @lastwordatl

Scales 925

Southern eats with serious star power—that's the name of the game at new hot spot Scales 925, opened by ATL rapper Clifford "TL" Harris. Expect a menu of classics like fried chicken, meatloaf and red snapper, plus a chic patio perfect for celeb spotting. Downtown, @scales925

Princi Italia

Did someone say "wood-fired pizza?" That's just one of the many upscale eats on offer at this new Italian resto. Decked in blond-wood touches, the eatery has plenty of pasta to go around and a breezy outdoor seating area for a prime view of this happening 'hood. Midtown, @princiatl

True Food Kitchen

Drink (and dine) to your health at this instant favorite at Lenox Square. Its colorful covered patio area is sprinkled with lush plants and serves as a welcome, relaxing respite beyond the resto's ever-bubbling interior. Buckhead, @truefoodkitchen

Vine & Tap

While working to revamp its menu to focus on Italian-American fare, this Buckhead bistro offers diners a plethora of patio seating nestled under stylish Verve Clouquot yellow umbrellas. Buckhead, @vineandtap

Supercia

Picnic table-style seating, bar stools and cozy group tables give diners plenty of options when choosing to dine alfresco on fresh tacos, empanadas and more at this Ford Fry outpost at Krog Street Market. (Just watch the gravel if you're donning heels!) Inman Park, @superciaatl

Ladybird Grove & Mess Hall

Get your fill of uncommon eats (think whole grilled North Carolina trout, Navajo fry bread and skilletz of hot mushrooms) at this Beltline eatery that recently extended hours to offer lunch and brunch ops, all for enjoying on its scenic wraparound patio. Old Fourth Ward, @ladybirdatlanta

Southern Roots Cafe

The Georgia World Congress Center recently announced the opening of this new authentic destination for locally sourced breakfast, lunch and dinner fare. Look for farm-fresh cuisine, down-home yet modern decor and, of course, a brand-new patio. Downtown, @syrwccatl

Cockatrice

Get your charcuterie fix by sharing slices of myriad cured meats and farm-fresh cheeses while kicking back on the breezy outdoor space of this Krog Street Market newbie from the brains behind The Spotted Trotter. Inman Park, @cockatrice
